Former Grenadian Killed In Tragic Accident Sept. 17

John Kenneth Wood Had Many Friends In Grenada

John Kenneth Wood was instantly killed Saturday afternoon, September 17th in an accidental fall from the window of his room on the ninth floor of the Robert E. Lee Hotel, San Antonio, Texas.

Mr. Wood, a field representative of Fire Companies Adjustment Bureau, was in San Antonio on business at the time of the tragic accident. His headquarters were in Shreveport, La.

Kenneth, as Mr. Wood was fondly known here, was born in Grenada, the son of Mr. J. William and Maggie Miller Wood, September 29, 1905. He spent his boyhood days in the Oxberry community. He attended a neighborhood school and Holcomb Consolidated School in his early school days. His parents moved to Grenada about eighteen years ago and he then entered Grenada City Schools. He also attended Chamberlain Hunt Academy, Port Gibson, Mississippi, and Macon-Andrews Business College, Memphis.

Upon completion of his school training he became an employee of the Illinois Central Railroad in the timber department, Tie Plant. After holding this position for about six months he moved to Delray, Florida, to join his parents, who had moved there on account of the ill health of his father. He readily secured a position there as accountant with the Walker Construction Company and very soon had formed a partnership in the business, which became the firm of Walker and Wood, Contractors. Mr. Wood prospered in this business for several years and had accumulated worldly goods of which to be proud when the business and financial structure in Florida collapsed.

After leaving Florida, Mr. Wood worked in Harlingen, Texas and Carbondale, Illinois. While in Carbondale he secured a position with the company with whom he was associated at the time of his death, and was transferred to St. Louis. He remained in St. Louis for about two years and, about a year ago, was transferred to Shreveport.

Funeral services were held at Carbondale, Illinois, the former home of his wife, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Wood is survived by his wife; a daughter, Jerry Kay, two and a half years old; a son, John Thomas, three months old, and his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wood, of Hattiesburg, and a brother, Archie M. Wood, of Hattiesburg.

4-H Club Work Closing Most Successful Year

Products Valued At $25,000,000 and Prizes At $1,000,000

Four-H Club work is closing its greatest year. It is enjoying the best leadership, program, and public support ever known. An enrollment gain over the 1937 record of 1,191,976 and girls is predicted.

Support from non-governmental sources such as camp, short course and college scholarships, educational trips and prizes in local, state and national contests is estimated at $1,000,000. The press also is doing a great service.

The investment is being made in the knowledge that 4-H is developing in boys and girls the finest American ideals of social, civic and economic life.

The large sum realized by 4-H'ers at the season's fairs from livestock prizes and sales will be further increased by county and state awards in achievement programs conducted by the Extension Service of the various states which terminate at the National 4H Club Congress to be held in Chicago November 25 to December 3 during the International Live Stock Exposition.

Superior Service Station and Cafe Razed By Fire

Fire Said to Have Originated From a Short-Circuit In The Wiring System

Th Superior Service Station, owned and operated by H. B. Roberts and Tony's Cafe, located in the same building, at the corner of Highway 51 and Cherry Street were destroyed by fire about two o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The fire was said to have originated from a short-circuit in the wiring system, which had given much annoyance for the past several weeks.

Nothing was saved by either occupants of the building as the fire had practically consumed the contents when the fire department reached the scene, which was about four or five minutes after receiving the alarm.

The property of the service station, including the garage adjoining and a service truck, and that of Tony Potera's are a total loss. No insurance was carried by either party.

MISSISSIPPI LEGION CARAVAN STARTS FOR HOME FRIDAY

Los Angeles, Calif. Sept. 22—In this city where the words "glamorous" and "gigantic" are everyday terms, the residents are still searching for words to describe the 1938 national American Legion parade which, led by the Mississippi Legion delegation, swept Los Angeles off its feet.

The triumphant Mississippians, headed by State Commander Wilkes Davis, Caravan Commander Walter Lee and Train Commander Henry Hilbun and H. P. Hearn, prepared to take their leaves as the convention drew to a close.

Public acclaim of the Mississippi floats and musical units was so great that at many points the entire line was forced to come to a halt as admirers closed in on the Magnolia State delegation. High Legion officials termed Mississippi's triumph as being even greater than in New York last year.

Los Angeles newspapers and radio stations, carrying full page spreads and hour-long programs devoted solely to Mississippi floats, drum majors, locomotives, and marching delegations, freely admitted that once again Mississippi had "stolen the show."

The Mississippi delegation, more than 600 strong, begins leaving Los Angeles, Thursday, with the special train carrying three of the state bands and approximately 250 delegates heading out for Salt Lake City, Thursday evening. The special train will make parade stops at Salt Lake City, Colorado Springs, Denver and St. Louis en route to Mississippi.

Other delegates, traveling by automobile, chartered busses and airplanes are preparing to set out for home Thursday or Friday. They will arrive in Mississippi early next week. The Mississippi Legion caravan, faced with another parade half the breadth of the continent in length, starts out on its return journey Friday morning. The flotilla, which headed the grand spectacle here, will continue through to San Diego for the night, After leaving California the floats will travel through Arizona, New Mexico, Texas and Louisiana before reaching Mississippi.

Have You Seen The Hosiery Mill In Operation?

Between 200 and 250 Young Men and Women Employed In This Plant

(By Mrs. Rice Lawrence)

Tuesday of this week the writer made a call at the Grenada Industries, Inc., and was privileged to be shown the "inside workin's" of this wonderful plant. Due to the limited amount of time, I was unable to see all, as the place is quite large and there are so many interesting and exciting things to gaze upon. However, I will return in the near future to view the various operations that are carried on in the remainder of the building.

Upon entering the building I noticed the neatness of the entrance, beautified with large beds of bright red zinnias on either side. Inside, I found one of the most fascinating and intricate productions in the world in progress, the knitting of exquisite silk hose. There are between two-hundred and fifty and three hundred people employed in this plant, the majority of which are young men and young women of Grenada and Grenada county, who have been expertly trained. I was most fortunate to arrive when they were having one of their five-minute rest periods, during which time they did not leave their places. At the end of this five-minute relaxation period, they started the machines, some seaming—some knitting, while others were engaged in the arts of hand-knitting, repairing tiny pulled places, removing wee knots, etc. The sheer and flawless silk beauty of the hose as a finished product, that is, before it is dyed a popular shade, make a pretty picture after they are arranged on smooth white tables, white rods separating the different sizes, weights or whatever the reason. The hose, before they are dyed, are of a pale yellow with bluish green tops and feet.

The spotless appearance of the building, inside and out, the shining metal of the machinery, the prevailing dignity of each employee, and the many lights form a scene pleasant to the eye.

I was informed that the building is furnished with "washed air" and is "lent-free", which, of course, are two of the most important features to be considered in the modern plants of today.

But you must see for yourself as I cannot find words to adequately describe what I saw.

Drastic Steps Are Needed To Combat Cancer In the State

New Knowledge About This Disease Has Been Gained During Past Ten Years

Drastic steps are needed to combat concer, in the opinion of Dr. Emma Gay, of Biloxi, State Commander of the Women's Field Army, American Society for the Control of Cancer, who conferred with State Board of Health officials in Jackson, Saturday, September 17.

Citing the rising death rate from cancer, Doctor Gay pointed out that this disease claimed 1334 Mississippians last year. Yet, she said, cancer has the best prospect of solution of a llthe degenerative diseases. More new knowledge about this disease has been gained during the past ten years than in all history up to that time.

Dr. Gay believes that cancer will begin to yield as the accumulating knowledge of the disease is put into use by the people. More and more people are beginning to realize that early cancer is curable, she said, and are consulting their physicians more often with reference to chronic irritation and for regular physical examinations, especially after the age of thirty-five.

Showing that cancer is more prevalent among women than men, Doctor Gay stated that the 1334 deaths in the state last year 825 occurred among women while 509 were among men.

"For this reason," Doctor Gay said, "it is of particular interest to women to take up arms in this struggle against cancer. Moreover, two of the forms of cancer which offer greatest promise of prevention or cure are those which affect women only. These are cancer of the breast and of the cervix.

Weekly News Letter

(By W. F. Bond)

Under the provisions of the State Law, any County Board of Supervisors may appropriate for one year an amount not exceeding $2,500.00 for the benefit of needy children in the county. While about a dozen counties are already making an appropriation for this very necessary work, we are hoping that this fall many other counties will see fit to do the same thing now that a State Program of Child Welfare has been provided for with the cooperation of the Children's Bureau of Washington.

There will be no money to go to needy children unless such is appropriated by the County Board of Supervisors. Surveys and studies will be made in several counties during the next year. If a county has an appropriation for needy children, the State Welfare Department will be glad to furnish expert supervision wherever possible.

JOHN KENNETH WOOD

It is always with sadness that we give account of the death of anyone, particularly that of a loved one or friend, and in recording the death of John Kenneth Wood, whose death occurred in San Antonio last Saturday, it brings back fond remembrances of the association and joys in life that we had with him.

We were practically reared with him, not in the same household all the time but much of the time. We have slept with him, we have hunted, fished and camped with him, we have gone to school with him and we have joined in many social activities with him. We have been with him, worked with him and have found him a true and tried friend and a gentleman.

Kenneth, his wife, Alydia, and young daughter, Jerry Kay, spent several days with the editor and his wife about a year ago. We enjoyed their visit very much and it grieves us to know that they all can come no more.

To Kenneth's wife, Alydia; his daughter, Jerry Kay, and infant son, John Thomas; his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Wood and brother, Archie Wood, the editor of The Sentinel extends deep and sincere sympathy.

Rice Lawrence.

REWARD TO BE WITHDRAWN MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 9:05 A. M.

In our issue of September 2, we offered a reward of TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS ($25.00) IN CASH, WITH A THREE YEARS SUBSCRIPTION TO THE SENTINEL THROWN in, to the person furnishing us the first written answer bearing his signature (the answer must be correct and must be substantiated with proof) to the following question:

Can anyone tell us why members of the Board of Supervisors have made purchases of grease and oil from a foreign concern (a firm not engaged in business in Grenada County) at 6 to 10 cents per pound and 25 to 50 cents per gallon higher than like products could have been had from local concerns?

In view of the fact that we have had this offer before the public for twenty-two days, and have had no one to furnish us a written answer, we feel that it should be withdrawn. Yes, we have had verbal answers, but we called for written answers, substantiated with proof, THEREFORE, OUR OFFER WILL BE WITHDRAWN EFFECTIVE AT 9:05 A. M. MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1938, A. D.

"GO YE AND SIN NO MORE"

We have had much to say concerning the audit of the records of Grenada county, completed in June of last year. We have advised the citizens of Grenada and Grenada county of the manner in which their business has been handled by our board of supervisors. We have adhered to the records and any further comments that we might make will be based on facts. However, Gentlemen of the Board, we make this admonition:

"Go ye, and sin no more."

We want you to have some peace. We are letting you alone, with the publication of this issue of The Sentinel, unless some member of your body wishes to answer, through the columns of this paper, any criticisms that we have offered and, unless we hear of whispering talk which we think authentic.

But mind you, Gentlemen of the Board who have sinned, sinned against yourselves, sinned against your wife, your children and the people of your district who elected you to the responsibile office which you hold, if you don't hew to the line we will not turn the heat on after Circuit Court convenes, we will turn it on before it convenes. Then, if the court does not indict you or you are not impeached, we are willing to go along with you—we mean by that, keep our mouth shut.

We know that very few, if any, boards of supervisors handle funds intrusted to them strictly according to laws, there are too many technicalities, but there is no excuse for petty graft—

Take it or leave it, but we again admonish you to:

"Go Ye, and Sin No More."

STRATEGY PROBLEMS

The Government has been engaged extensively in buying different products in order to keep the prices up and to help industries and agriculture. In order to harmonize the plan the authorities continue to distribute food stuffs, clothing and materials, to poor families, most of whom are already on relief and receiving help from other sources.

Farm prices keep cracking up and every device is resorted to to amend the breaks. The contest between employers and workmen appears to be taking second place in this continuous performance.

MORE JUSTICE

In our editorial, "IN JUSTICE TO MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS," in last week's issue of The Sentinel we quoted certain comments of the state auditor which we had extracted out of the audit report of the records of Grenada county completed in June, 1937.

While we quoted correctly, even down to the dotting of an "i" and the crossing of a "t", we did not give the average cost per mile for highway maintenance in District Two. The average cost per mile was based on the averages for the five periods covered in the audit report.

The average, $42.64, for District Two, was the lowest of any of the five districts. This district has more miles of roads to be maintained by the supervisor than any other district, and with no gravel pit located within the district, the supervisor being compelled to send his trucks across practically the entire breadth of the county, we think the comparative average cost per mile for this district is most favorable. We feel that Mr. George Chamberlain, Supervisor of District Two, deserves commendation for his care in spending road maintenance funds entrusted to him. And we offer no criticism of Messrs. L. P. Horton, Supervisor of District One and J. L. Elliott, Supervisor of District Five, as we published favorable quotations from the auditor's report in last week's issue of The Sentinel.

FARM RELIEF FAILS AGAIN

Paul Mallon expressed the view of most informed commentators when he wrote in a recent column: "The farm act is failing fast. That fact . . . is becoming so evident that many of Mr. Wallace's men will now concede privately they do not see how the situation can be worked out next year on the same basis."

This has been the unhappy experience of most farm acts of the past, no matter how sincerely inspired or efficiently administered. Time has again proven the old adage that "self-help is the best help," and that goes for farmer as well as everyone else. If agriculture looks to political panaceas for permanent benefits, it will be foredoomed to disappointment. Real farm progress is coming from activities instigated and controlled by the farmers themselves, such as non-political farm marketing cooperatives which apply sound business principles to farm operation.

UNITED STATES STRIVING FOR TAX RECORD

Americans often attempt to cheer themselves by arguing that our tax burden is not yet so heavy as that borne by the British people. But, as Harry Scherman points out in the New Republic, this is definitely a misconception.

Due to the tremendous increase in taxation that has taken place here in recent years, we have the unenviable distinction of having caught up with the English. In the last fiscal year, the English people paid $107 per person in taxes. And the American people paid practically the same.

Furthermore, much of our emergency spending has been financed by deferring the taxing period—that is, by inflating the debt, and incurring gigantic obligations to be paid in the future. If we made our tax income equal our tax outgo, it would very possibly be discovered that we are the highest taxed nation in the world.

NEW FISCAL POLICIES DEVELOPING

It was our own Senator Pat Harrison who won the acclaim of taxpayers throughout the country by successfully stepping on oppressive provisions for the 1936 tax act. Now Senator Harrison gets the headlines again in the very heat of terrific political concussions by declaring that at the coming session of Congress he means to wage war on "excessive Federal spending."

DARSTIC STEPS ARE

"If every woman who discovered any change in the breast would go immediately to a physician who then acted promptly and with efficiency we should see a good 70 per cent of cases of cancer of the breast permanently relieved," Doctor Gay declared.

"When cancer affects the cervix," she said "it nearly always starts in unhealthy tissue which has resulted from neglected injuries occurring at the time of childbirth. Seldom is a baby born without some injury—slight or severe—to the mother. Birth injuries should be taken care of, either soon after a child is born, or if physician advises, after the age when children are no longer expected. Cancer rarely develops in the cervix in which all injuries have been well cared for."

Since cancer is a disease more prevalent among women, Doctor Gay invites women's clubs to make the control of cancer a special project.

Weekly News Letter

(By W. F. Bond)

A great deal of time has been spent during the last month preparing what is called by the Federal authorities, "A State Plan" to submit to the Social Security Board for approval, which, if approved by said Board, will serve as a basis of the cooperation of the State Department of Public Welfare of Mississippi with the federal authorities in carrying out the provisions of the Federal Social Security Act. This plan outlines in detail all of the rules and regulations governing the serving of the needy agede of the State over sixty-five and the needy blind. The document has to have the approval of the Attorney General's office as to its provisions being in harmony with the laws of the State and also of the State Treasurer as to availability of the finances provided by the State Legislature. The plan is now complete and is in the hands of the Social Security Board. As soon as this Board approves the plan, it will govern the activities of the State Department so far as the needy blind and the needy aged are concerned for another two years.

Improvement of Milk Quality Purpose Of State College Meet

Cheese Factory, Condensery Operators, Join With Farm Leaders to Chart Course for Better Whole Milk.

Constructive planning for the further development of Mississippi's growing dairy industry will occupy the attention of representatives of milk utilizing plants together with officials of the Extension Department and the State Department of Agriculture, in a conference to be held at State College September 23.

During the formative period while dairying was being stressed in a major farm effort, and while processing and utilizing plants were being made available at numerous points within the state, the production of maximum quantity of milk and cream was the main purpose.

More recently there has come the necessity for quality improvement, along with the continuing need for more dairy animals on farms to produce more dairy products for sale to dairy plants. The Legislature of 1936 recognized this necessity for quality improvement by the enactment of the state cream grading law. Two years experience under this law has proven so beneficial to farmers and to dairy plants, alike, that a comparable degree of improvement is now being sought in the production and handling of whole milk, especially for cheese factories and condenseries.

It is the stated purpose of the meeting to be held at State College to arrive at and agree upon definite grades of milk so as to discourage the sale of inferior milk and to reward the production of quality milk. Attending the meeting will be authorized representatives of the dairy plants, many of whom live in distant states, and plans agreed upon will immediately have official weight.

"Our rapidly increasing dairy industry is the pride of the whole State of Mississippi," stated J. C. Holton, commissioner of agriculture. "For a quarter of a century —during good years, indifferent years, and bad years—dairying has forged ahead until milk and milk products now constitute one of our major farm commodities.

"The program for cream quality improvement has already opened new outlets and provided more attractive prices to producers of butterfat for butter making purposes. We hope that a similar improvement program may be equally beneficial to producers of whole milk for the manufacture of cheese and condensed milk."

Report Of The Grand Jury Of Sunflower County, Miss., Regular Sept. 1938 Term

(We are printing that part of the Grand Jury report of Sunflower county dealing with the State Penitentiary at Parchman, as we think it of interest to our readers.)

To the Honorable S. F. Davis, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court District of Mississippi:

We, your Grand Jury empanelled at and for the regular September, 1938 Term of Circuit Court of Sunflower County, Mississippi, beg leave to submit this our report of the acts and proceedings had and done by and before our said body:

By means of a large committee appointed from our body, the State Penitentiary and the plant thereat were inspected, and from said inspection, it was evident that said institution is being managed properly, that sanitary conditions there were good and that a better-than-good crop is being made and harvested at said place. The prisoners there appeared to be well-fed, and have proper and sufficient sleeping quarters. No complaints were had from prisoners. We desire to recommend to the Legislature or governing boards that an Isolation and Receiving Ward be added to the hospital and that general repairs, particularly repairs on a leaky roof be made on said hospital. We further recommend that improvements on an extension to the Cold Storage Plant be made. We found the Road Camp at Blaine to be in good condition with the exception that the sewerage disposal and sanitary facilities need correction, and we recommend that this be done.

And now having reported our acts in the premises, we now beg to be finally discharged, subject, if needed, to recall when so ordered by Your Honor.

Respectfully submitted, this the 14th day of September, A. D. 1938.

J. G. Prichard, Foreman.
